

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We got on the initial list last fall and the unwanted calls have virtually stopped. We have more quality time together as a family in the evenings without being interrupted with unwanted sales calls. Please leave Indiana's Telephone Privacy law the way it is. We enjoy not having those unwanted calls coming in every night!